FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Intesource named one of the Top 100 innovators in the industry

Supply & Demand Chain Executive* Announces Its 2008 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100

Phoenix, AZ – July 30, 2008 – Intesource, the e-Sourcing experts, has been named as one of Supply & Demand Chain Executive Magazine's Executive 100 in its June/July 2008 issue – highlighting the industry's most innovative supply and demand chain vendors.

"Our readers turn to Supply & Demand Chain Executive to learn about new solutions and best practices for enabling the supply chain, to understand trends in supply chain technology, and to benchmark their own companies' enablement initiatives with those of other enterprises across industry verticals," explained Andrew K. Reese, editor of Supply & Demand Chain Executive. "The corporate executives and line-of-business leaders who rely on the magazine want to know what the different supply chain solution and service providers are doing to help them meet the challenges of the 21st century supply chain." He added "Our judging committee looked for solutions across a variety of industries, addressing the needs of companies of varying sizes, and assisting in the transformation of a diverse mix of the functions that make up the supply chain."

Intesource President, Tom Webster, stated "This is a clear validation of our innovation and leadership in this space". He added "Given the current economic climate, our full-service solutions have proven to be an important component to bolster struggling bottom-line profits."

Seven years ago, Supply & Demand Chain Executive announced its first "100" list of supply chain solution providers, consultants and other organizations that were helping lead the way in transforming companies' supply and demand chains. Final recipients are featured in the cover story of the June/July 2008 issue of Supply & Demand Chain Executive, as well as online at www.SDCExec.com/SDCE100.
